U.S. Probation Officer Action:

Mr. Knox was sentenced before Your Honor on March 31, 2022, to 36 months imprisonment and a three-year term of supervised release for Conspiracy to Distribute Controlled Substance. Supervision commenced on February 17, 2023. Mr. Knox resides in Newark, New Jersey with his adult children and granddaughter. He has been receiving Social Security disability income since 2014, due to his mental health.

We are now writing to inform Your Honor that Mr. Knox admitted to a relapse in May 2023. While he was incarcerated for the instant offense, his 17-year-old daughter was shot and killed. Mr. Knox admitted he is having a difficult time grieving her death.

Mr. Knox has been attending mental health treatment at Trinitas Hospital since February 2023. Due to his recent relapse and need for additional support, his treatment was increased to a co-occurring partial hospitalization on June 13, 2023. He attends treatment on Monday, Tuesday, and Thursday from 9am-12pm, in addition to weekly individual counseling sessions.

The probation office will continue to monitor Mr. Knox's compliance by conducting random urinalysis testing and verifying his participation and attendance in co-occurring treatment. Currently, we are respectfully requesting no judicial action.

Respectfully submitted,

SUSAN M. SMALLEY, Chief
U.S. Probation Officer
